To The Citizens of The Town of Appomattox

I sincerely appreciate the vote of confidence given me in the election of June 13, when you chose me to serve as the next Mayor of our Town. The large number of voters participating reflects the interest of our citizens, which was most gratifying. I will in every way try to prove myself worthy of this honor.

I am sure it is the desire of every citizen of Appomattox progress and with your cooperation I feel sure that we can and will accomplish many things. I will welcome and consider all suggestions made for the welfare of our town.

Our town is a historic one with the civil War Centennial now in progress and large number of tourists visiting here, each citizen must do their part of host. It is necessary to make preparations now for the climax of this celebration in April 9, 1965, when Appomattox will play host to the largest Crowd ever to visit here, requiring every state in the nation. We must take advantage of this opportunity and really put Appomattox on the map.

Again I Thank You
Gratefully,
S. R. LAWSON

. . . Dillard Franklin

Dillard Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Franklin of Route 2, Appomattox, received the Seaboard Forestry Award at the State FFA Rally held in Blacksburg last week. Dillard graduated from Appomattox High School this year and is a member of the Robert E. Lee FFA Chapter there. Franklin's forestry enterprise was judged the most outstanding in Virginia. The Seaboard Air Line Railroad of Richmond presented Dillard with a check for $275 and his advisor, Mr. H. B. Pack with $175. Mr. Pack and Dillard, along with other state winners will tour several eastern cities and attend the National FFA Convention in Kansas City this fall.

During the four-year course in vocational Dillard planted 28,000 seedlings in addition to improving 25 acres of farm woodland. Of the 25 acres 15 were marked for thinning and a pulpwood cut was made on 6 acres. Undesirable hardwood and old trees were poisoned on the remainder of the area. Fire lanes were constructed to protect the entire area and wildlife borders were established along the edge of the woodland.

Franklin had been a member of the forestry judging team, a member of the Keep Virginia Green committee and has attended Holiday Lake Forestry Training camp. He has also won three forestry awards made possible by the local Lion's Club. He has served on crop and dairy judging teams and has been an active member of the Robert E. June — the traditional "month of brides" — has become a tragic "month of death" in Appomattox County.

An unprecended total of eleven persons have been killed on Appomattox highways this month. There is another day to go in June, and then the Fourth of July holiday week-end.

Latest victims in the series of tragedies was the death yesterday of two fine young men in a wreck at Vera.

At approximately 1:40 P. M., a lumber truck, being driven by Thomas Coleman Harvey, 35, of Church St., Appomattox, and with James Russell Moore, 42, of Route 1, Appomattox, as passenger, was wrecked and both occupants instantly killed. Reports state that the right front tire blew out, sending the vehicle out of control as it passed through the village of Vera. The truck was loaded with pulpwood, headed toward Lynchburg.

The vehicle ran off the highway, and wrapped around a tree, in a tragic crushing, killing both men instantly.

Harvey was the father of four children, and Moore the father of two.

This tragedy adds to the record of such deaths during June in Appomattox County. Eight persons died as the result of a head-on wreck on Route 460, near Evergreen on Sunday, June 18. And on June 6, there was one death in a crash near Oakville.

This series of tragedies has saddened the entire area. Such mass deaths alter a normal record in this county of from zero to two or three in an entire year. Eleven in just one month, and that month not yet over, is a general cause for alarm and concern.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the families of those involved in these tragedies.

(Editor's note: Please take extra precautions if you venture onto the highway over the forthcoming holiday week-end!)
